Our company

Källby, a small village in the heartland of Sweden, is where our family company was founded in the 1930s. Our founder, Gunnar Dafgård, early realized how society and technology developed – and he became a pioneer in the frozen food industry. The passion and dedication of developing great food has been passed on, and since over 10 years, the third generation of the Dafgård family is active within the company.

Today, we are one of Scandinavia's leading producers of ready meals, pizzas, bread and Swedish meatballs. We offer a wide range of products and are constantly developing our assortment along with our customers.

» Dafgård is located in Källby, Sweden, with a distribution centre in Duisburg, Germany.
